After Amy Efav

Props to Amy Efav. This author made me root for a girl who dumped her baby in a trash bag and feel empathy toward her. Before reading this, I would have said "send her to jail, try her as an adult, who cares about her!" But after reading it, I care about the girl. This author did her job. She made me feel exactly what she wanted me to.

Takahashi Tuesday, January 24, 2012. Plot Summary: Devon Davenport is an all-around student who has a lot going for her. Despite her lousy upbringing, and irresponsible mother, Devon does the best she can to take care of herself and her future.

After by Amy Efav - Blogger

After That Morning, there's only one way to define Devon: attempted murderer. And yet gifted author Amy Efav does the impossible— she turns Devon into an empathetic character, a girl who was in such deep denial that she refused to believe she was pregnant.

After : Book summary and reviews of After by Amy Efav

Amy Efav tackled a heavy subject matter effectively and with great lyrical style. While reading and listening some of "After" I took a little time to d research on the author. I was pleasantly surprised to find out that Efav spent a great deal of time researching teenage girls who have committed such an unthinkable act of dumbing their baby in trash dumpsters.
